THE LONG COUNT (Krazy Kat)

Produced by
Charles B. Mintz

Distributed by
Paramount Famous Lasky Corp.

Krazy Kat is a challenger for the heavyweight champion title. When the present champion enters the ring, the crowd cheers and applauds as he is the favorite. When Krazy Kat enters the ring they boo, hiss and jeer at him.

In the first round, the favorite holds Krazy Kat off very easily, battering him around from post to post. Round one ends with the champ hemming Krazy Kat into the ropes from which he bounces back to the champ, flooring him. Krazy Kat is now the favorite and the crowd cheers him.

The champ enters the ring in the second round and continues his onslaught finally sending Krazy Kat down for the count of fourteen. Krazy Kat on getting up hops on his bicycle with the champ after him. The bicycle, picking up the fight, sends left and right to the champ, finally knocking him out for good. As Krazy Kat is acclaimed champ, four big tough contenders are introduced to Krazy Kat and he faints.
